(NKJV)

FUSING ELEMENTS FOR EXPLOSIVE JOY

Theme Verse: “These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full.” (John 15:11, NKJV)

Motto: I've Got Joy!

Joy comes from God—the source of all our joy. Joy is produced when we allow the Holy Spirit to work in our hearts, fusing spiritual elements that are explosive when mixed. As scientists, we are eager to use our senses to observe how the Holy Spirit works in and around us. When we obediently keep God’s Word—fusing elements like those found in the fruit of the Spirit—we explode in joy. The world does not give us joy, and the world can never take away our joy. This year’s Vacation Bible School has us working in God’s Laboratory.

As a result of experiencing these lessons, participants will . . .

- observe how the Holy Spirit is at work in and through us.
- learn the importance of obeying God’s Word and fusing various spiritual elements to produce real joy.

Experiment #1

Obedience + Love

Microscope
John 14:15-31

Energy
"If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love." (John 15:10)

Elements
Obedience is a way that believers showcase their love for God. Because obedience is often parallel to a person's faith, it (obedience) highlights a person's level of trust in God. As Jesus taught, one significant way to show love to God is to obey His commands. Even if the command goes against what a believer personally thinks, God requires obedience—as His love would never lead believers astray. In the case of the disciples, obediently loving one another (despite the various downsides) is the primary way to express love to and for God.

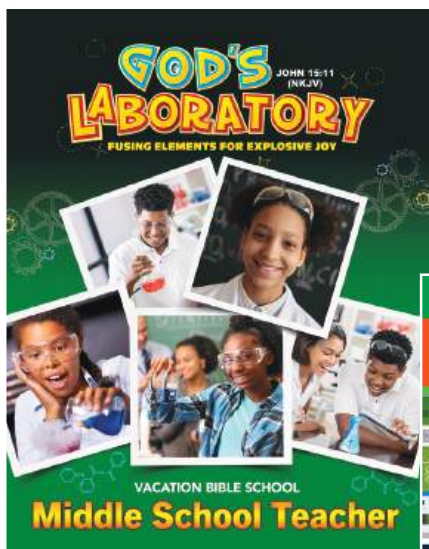

Variables

Commandment: an important rule that is given by God.

Love: a feeling of sincere affection for another person or a strong liking of something.

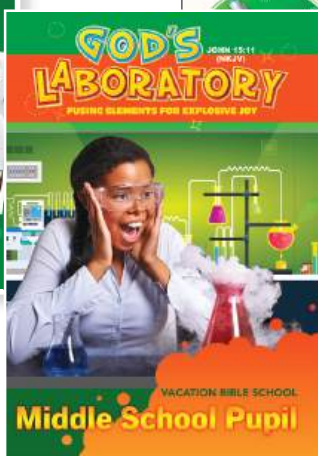

15 "If you love me, keep my commands. 16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever— 17 the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. 19 Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. 20 On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. 21 The one who keeps my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me and keeps my commands, and I too will love them and show myself to them." 22 Then he said, "But, Lord, why do you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?"

Microscope
John 14:15-31

Energy
"If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love." (John 15:10)

Elements
In the Christian journey, love and obedience work together to guide believers' actions as they build relationships with God and each other. Just as love anchors the connection between God and His creation, God requires humankind to transmit His love—to extend unconditional love to one another. Because this feat is not the easiest, considering the volatile nature of human relations, God sent the Holy Spirit to assist believers in keeping the commandment to love all people.

Variables
Command - important rule by God.
Love - a healthy affection for an ...an or a strong something...

John 14:15-31
15 "If you love me, keep my commands. 16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever— 17 the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. 19 Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. 20 On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them." 22 Then Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said why do you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?" 23 Jesus replied, "Anyone who obey my teaching, My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them"
